Charlyne G. Coleman

PROFILE

I have lived in Hendersonville most of my life. I have a degree in Business Administration from UNC-Chapel Hill with additional training in tax preparation and as an accounting and probate paralegal.

I was an office manager for a local attorney for 18 years prior to establishing my own business.

For the last 15 years I have been serving the residents of Henderson County, NC with my organizational skills in areas identified on the Services page. Services are tailored to each individual client. I have also worked as an independent paralegal with attorneys in the region in the area of estate administration.

Confidentiality and discretion are a fundamental work ethic of mine.

I do not give legal counsel or financial investment advice.
